

WHAT JESUS TAUGHT

By Christine Rappleye

Jesus loves the children.
He had them come to Him.

He sat them on His knee
And taught them of eternity.

He held and blessed each child;
Angels came down and smiled.

Each child learned of Jesus—
That He suffered and died for us

To take away our sins,
And how He lives again.

So I remember reverently
How His Atonement sets me free

So I can live eternally
With Jesus and my family.

DAVID and GOLIATH

By Susan Fielden

President Gordon B. Hinckley has told us that we can defeat temptation, just as David slew Goliath, the Philistine giant. Ask a parent to tell you David's story from 1 Samuel 17:1–51. To reenact this great Old Testament account, mount page 33 on poster board or heavy paper. Then cut out the background scenery, Goliath, David's arm and sling, and the stone-throwing device. With a pencil point, punch a small hole in David's arm and shoulder at A, the scenery and stone-throwing device at B, and Goliath's foot and the scenery at C. Then attach the moving parts with paper fasteners as shown in the illustration (with the stone-throwing device on the back of the scenery). Whenever you feel tempted to do something wrong, remember President Hinckley's promise. Remind yourself of David's victory by swinging his arm and sling, flinging the stone to hit Goliath on the head, and then making him crash onto his back.

Front

Back

Stone throwing device